EPWORTH LEAGUE PREPARES FOR CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

Charleroi Chapter Makes Arrangements For Delegates

OPENING SESSION TUESDAY

President E. W. Jones Announces Program for Three Days' Meetings.

Arrangements are practically completed for the holding of the Epworth League convention of the Washington district at the Methodist Episcopal church here next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. District President E. W. Jones of Bridgeville has announced the program, which will include morning, afternoon and evening sessions on the three days.

There are a large number of delegates and members of the chapter have made lavish preparations for their entertainment. They will arrive Tuesday morning and register. The first real convention service will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. On this same afternoon the constitution will be adopted, and the business session held. A "Get Acquainted" social will terminate the Tuesday afternoon exercises.

President Jones will preside at the Tuesday evening session, and Rev. Alton M. Doak, the pastor of the Charleroi Methodist Episcopal church, will make the address of welcome to the delegates and the response will be by Rev. J. S. Allison. Mrs. Joseph Earl Appley will give an illustrated lecture, "A Demon in Disguise." On Wednesday and Thursday features will be department conferences. There will be in charge of various officers of the league in the district. The Wednesday morning session will begin at 8:30 o'clock and those who will take part in the program are I. W. Goettman of Monaca, J. C. Mace, Wellsburg, W. Va., President Jones, Miss Gertrude L. Fowles, Miss Emma Cox of Monhall and Mrs. M. L. McCoy of Glenwillard. Committees will report and reports will be made for the year.

On Wednesday afternoon, Rev. B. L. Archer of West Homestead, Mr. Mace, President Jones, Miss Nangle of Washington; Miss Cox, Miss Ida Openshaw, and Miss L. T. Smith will occupy places on the program.

Wednesday evening C. E. Townner of Monongahela, second vice president will preside, and Rev. C. S. Buchanan, a Java missionary home on furlough, will give a lecture. The principal feature of the Thursday morning session will be a discussion of the social side of the Epworth League. Rev. G. Meade Daugherty of Dravosburg and Miss M. S. Boswell of Pittsburgh will have places on the program. The report of the nominating committee will be made on Thursday afternoon. Dr. Terbush will talk to the pastors and J. D. Keffer of Washington and Miss Evangeline Gist and Rev. O. Smith of Franklin will speak. J. C. Mace will preside at the evening session and the officers installed by Rev. Terbush who is the district superintendent. Rev. J. Clarke Mathewson of Bridgeville will speak on the topic, "Paul, or John Mark."

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock a game of ball will be played between the Methodist and Catholic teams of the Church League and the delegates will be taken to this.

Etta Lumsden Will Entirely Recover

May be Crippled for Awhile but Is Expected to Gradually Gain Use of Body.

Word received by the Charleroi relatives of Etta Lumsden, the daughter of George Lumsden at Los Angeles, is to the effect that Etta has been taken home from the Good Samaritan hospital, and that her mind will be all right. She will be crippled for a while, but it is expected that she will in time recover entirely. Etta was assaulted several weeks ago by a 17 year old boy, with an axe and she was almost fatally injured.

CHARLEROI MAN RANKS AS AUTHOR

Book Written by Rev. A. M. Doak will be Published in September

TITLE, "HOW TO BE RICH"

"How to be Rich" is the title of a new book written by a Charleroi man to be published the first of September by Jennings and Graham at Cincinnati. The book is the work of Rev. A. M. Doak, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and is of a semi religious character. Rev. Doak sent in his manuscript in January and only yesterday received word that it had been accepted.

In his work, Rev. Doak takes up the discussion of nature, books, companions and God, and the enriching effect which they may have upon a life.

Rev. Doak has been gathering material for his book for about 10 years, but wrote it last summer. Jennings and Graham were the first publishers to whom the work was sent. It is not the first writing this popular minister has done by any means, however, having been a contributor for years to church and other papers, principally among which have been the New York and Pittsburgh Christian Advocates. His book will be placed on sale just previous to the quarterly conference of the Methodist church.

QUIETNESS PREVAILS AT VARIOUS PRECINCTS

Expected that Heavy Vote will be Turned Out in Charleroi for the Republican Candidates.

The primary election opened quietly enough in the borough at 2 o'clock this afternoon. With the exception of the second precinct, where the polling place has been changed from 520 McKean avenue to 600 Fallowfield avenue, the voting places remain unchanged. When the polls opened a large number of voters were in waiting ready to cast their ballots. The indications are that a heavy vote will be polled in Charleroi, as the friends of Congressman J. K. Tener and the various Senatorial and Legislative candidates are making a lively hustle to get out the vote. The polls will be kept open until 8 o'clock, which will give the voters who work out of town an opportunity to cast their ballots after their return. At this writing there has been no challenging, and the indications are that the election will be conducted in a quiet manner.

MONESSEN LODGE OF ELKS ARE EXPECTING TO GO TOO

Everybody Invited to Take Trip to Cascade Park with Charleroi Lodge, Next Wednesday.

SPECIAL RATES MADE BY THE P. & L. E.

Although the date for the Elks picnic was announced but a few days ago, the advance sale of railroad tickets has surpassed the committee having arrangements in charge. Many Charleroi people are taking advantage of the low rates and any one caring to go with the Elks this year can secure their tickets from any of the following committee: E. I. Brown, T. H. Warrensford, S. K. Long, R. J. McKean, L. F. Baker, F. E. Adams, J. B. Tussing, Roland Hoops.

The Monessen Lodge of Elks and their friends have decided to go with Charleroi this year and will play a ball game with Charleroi Lodge, the prize being a silver loving cup. A program of sports will be arranged for the day, and the park manager has notified the local Elks that nothing will be left undone to give the Charleroi people a good time.

The local lodge of Elks invite the people of Charleroi to join them for the day at Cascade Park, which is without doubt one of the most up-to-date parks in the state.

The P. and L. E. has made special rates for the Elks, making the fare for the round trip by special train that leaves Brownsville at 7:30. Those going from Charleroi will take the train at Monessen. Arrangements have been made with the railroad company to have a special leave Cascade Park at 7 o'clock which will bring the Charleroi people home shortly after dark. All who are thinking of going with the Elks should secure their tickets early, thus giving the committee ample time to secure enough coaches.

Demand Laws Be Enforced

Charleroi Ministers Draft Resolution Opposing Sunday Baseball

At a called meeting of the Charleroi Ministerial Association last night a resolution was drafted, which will be signed by all the ministers demanding the enforcement of the laws regarding Sunday baseball and athletic performances in this section. The meeting was attended by six of the ministers. The protest was made from the game which was played at Donora last Sunday between a Donora and Charleroi team. When the resolution is prepared it will be made public and sent to ministers and news papers in other sections.

ELKS WILL PAY FOR SILVER LOVING CUP

The Charleroi Elks will play the Monessen Elks a game of baseball at Cascade Park June 8 for a silver cup, the winner to keep cup until next year when it will be contested for again. All baseball players who wish to play will report to Harry Hormell. All arrangements have been made for the outing. Tickets can be procured from the committee.

Thought to Have Been Stolen

As Chief of Police Albright was passing the old building at the corner of Third street and McKean avenue last evening he noticed three boys hastily making their exit from the place. He started after them, and in their haste they dropped two boxes of cigaret packages. He picked them up, and took them to the police station. It is believed the cigarets were stolen, and Chief Albright has them at the police station for the owner. He knows the boys and may take some action.

Will Teach the Blind to Read

Classes to be Started at St. Mary's Church Next Wednesday.

On Wednesday, June 8 at 11 o'clock Miss Quirk of the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh will endeavor to form a class in reading, and writing for the blind by the raised letter system. The classes will be in the Sunday School room of St. Mary's Episcopal church and the Braille and Moon systems will be taught. Instruction and books are free.

This noble work is being carried on under the patronage of the Confederation of Women's clubs of Pittsburgh. Mrs. L. W. Shey was instrumental in having Miss Quirk come here and she will give further particulars. Any one with poor eyesight can also receive free instructions.

BISHOP WHITEHEAD WILL CONFIRM CLASS

The Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, bishop of the Pittsburgh Diocese of the Episcopal church, will arrive this evening to be a guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Daly at North Charleroi. Sunday morning he will confirm a class at St. Mary's Episcopal church, dedicate a memorial window, and bless the corner stone of the old St. Thomas' church, which members of St. Mary's church have received from the ruins.

NUMBER OF PERSONS KILLED AND INJURED IS DECREASING

Telephone Company to Furnish Returns

Will Give Results of Primary Election Throughout the District.

The Charleroi Telephone company has made arrangements for securing the election returns from the three counties in this Congressional district tonight, and will furnish the information free of charge to patrons. The returns in Washington county for the Assembly fight will be tabulated, as well as the Senatorial results in Washington and Greene.

Only Two Meet Death on Division Within Past Month

NEW ORDER IS EFFECTIVE

Acts as Preventive to Wanton Destruction of Life On Tracks.

Very noticeable has been the decrease in the number of persons injured and killed on the railroad since the inauguration of the new order restricting trespassing. The new order has been the source of much complaint on the part of citizens and considerable trouble on the part of the railroad officers, but it has been, as predicted by the State Railway Commission which is responsible for its enforcement, very effective.

Along the Monongahela division within the past month, the total number of killed and injured would not total more than four. This is in marked contrast with the large list of killed and injured of former months before the order went into effect. Then the average number of killed and injured would reach 20 or 30, and some months even go higher than that.

The usual fine given trespassers on the railroad for the first offense is $1.00 and costs. Some are inclined to resist arrest, but quickly realize the futility of such action. In this immediate vicinity there has not been, so far as is known, any person injured or killed on the tracks within the past several weeks. At Houston Run this week a woman was killed while trespassing on the tracks and recently a man was killed at Brownsville while trespassing.

SNUG SUM REALIZED WITH WHICH TO BUY CARPET FOR CHURCH

A snug sum was realized by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church last night for the purpose of purchasing a carpet for the Sunday School room, through a Dream Social. Frank Bly was the "dreamer." He portrayed the part of a man who was to be married the next day, and he had dreams of old sweethearts of his. When his "bride-to-be," a character taken by Mrs. C. Fisher, appeared, and began to dream of her old sweethearts, he nearly had heart disease.

Following the social refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake.

Vote For Tener.

In casting their ballots today for Congressman John K. Tener to continue to represent them in Congress, the voters of Charleroi will make no mistake. Mr. Tener is in every way qualified for the duties of the office he has creditably filled for one term, and for which he is most admirably adapted by reason of his wide acquaintance and profound knowledge of the conditions which makes the representative of this Congressional district a most important factor in National legislation on account of its connection with the great inland waterways project. This district is one of several that comprise the nucleus of the legislation that has a most important bearing on National prosperity, and it is important that a representative of force and ability be chosen to promote these interests. No one possesses these qualifications to a greater degree than Mr. Tener, and for this reason his return to Congress is a good business proposition. Whatever opposition there may be to Mr. Tener in the district it has no other basis than that he has been loyal in his Republicanism at Washington; that he supported the Roosevelt policies as promulgated by President Taft; that he voted with the majority of his party for the legislation recommended by the Republican National platform. This opposition is based on a movement to disrupt the Republican party in the State. It is opposed to the administration of President Taft, and is not in sympathy with the administration of Governor Stuart.

All who are in favor of the progressive policies of the Republican party as advocated by Roosevelt and Taft, should cast their ballots for John K. Tener to again represent this district in Congress. He is worthy of this great trust and will continue to give a faithful account of the stewardship imposed upon him.

Civic Duty.

Every citizen imbued with a spark of civic pride should make it a point to turn out at the primary election this afternoon. The polls are open from 2 until 8 o'clock this evening and those who have not voted by the time this paper reaches them still have the opportunity to have a voice in the nomination of candidates for officials who will represent them in the National and State halls of legislation.

Civic indifference is the cause of all the political misrule in this country. "Let me control the nominations, and I don't care who the voters elect," is the expression said to have been made by the political boss of a city notorious for misgovernment and corruption. Under our present laws such control is not possible if the voters will only turn out. The stay-at-home voter is a poor sort of Christian, even if he is zealous in church attendance. By his civic indifference he is a party to crime, vice and corruption that could not exist if he did his duty as a voter to himself, his family and his fellow man.

Our New Station.

All things come to those who wait, and by waiting more or less patiently for some years Charleroi is to get a handsome new railroad station. The announcement is officially made that the appropriation for the construction has been granted by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and that it will be completed this season.

Those who advocated reprisals against the railroad company for its apparent neglect of Charleroi will now see the wisdom of being patient. Great bodies move slow, and the Pennsylvania Railroad company is a huge concern, when all its ramifications are taken into consideration. Each locality in need of improvements must take its turn in the order the management thinks it is entitled, and all receive ultimate consideration as fast as the business policy of the company warrants. This is one of the most conservative and solid financial corporations in the country, and what may appear unjust discrimination to one community is simply a matter of impartial business policy with the corporation.

A New Jersey woman thinks that all "old maids" should take out papers of citizenship. Probably wants to distinguish them from the unfortunate married part of the feminine population. Of course the "old maids" will register no objection.

RHEUMATIC TWINGES.

Before These Pains Get a Hold Take Precautions.

Rheumatism is now considered by many doctors to be a blood disease and should be treated by rigid dieting. Medicines, at least in the first stages, are less effective than curbing the appetite.

If one is of rheumatic tendency she should eat little or no red meat, cut out sugar, bread, sweets and acid fruits and should drink plenty of water.

This may seem like a severe treatment for a small complaint, at the first only twinges. Neglected, they mean untold suffering, often complete disablement.

It would be a good thing for those of us who are inclined to take rheumatic twinges lightly to recall the definition of the late Dr. Spurgeon, himself a great sufferer from rheumatism and gout, "If you put your hand into a vise and let a man press as hard as he can, that is rheumatism; if he can be got to press a little harder, it is gout."

Before that vise gets such a hold it cannot be loosened, take precautions. Dieting may not be pleasant, but it is pleasanter than being a rheumatic victim with only oneself to blame.

Sock and Buskin.

In the early ages theatrical performers disguised their faces with wine lees or a rude pigment. Aeschylus, the famous tragic poet, introduced masks, which were of various kinds, expressing every age, country, condition and complexion. All were constructed with the greatest nicety and precision. The dresses were also adapted to the characters assumed by the actors. What was known as the buskin was a hunting boot. Those worn by tragedians had soles three inches thick, composed of layers of cork, and were laced up in front as high as the calf. Sandals were also worn, and many of these had thick cork soles. The colors of the foot coverings were various, red being the favorite hue for warriors and purple for other characters. Slaves wore a low shoe bearing the name of sock, which was also the ordinary footwear of comedians. From this circumstance arose the well known phrase of "sock and buskin," so generally associated with the drama.

A London weekly offered 2 guineas for a definition of faith, hope and charity. The winner is as follows: Faith, blind trust in a first page; hope, what investors are fed upon; charity, what some of them are likely to be brought to.

That is certainly not bad, but this one is perhaps even better: Faith, the gift that saves mankind; hope, the gift that cheers mankind; charity, the gift that makes man kind.

The Old Back Shed.

It used to be a barn but we all call it "our old shed." 'Tis just a place we pile stuff, and its' often pa has said: "I'll have the second-hand man come some day and haul away all this old rubbish stored in here I must do that today." But pa he'd sure forget it—fore he'd get out of sight, and ma says now she's glad he did, for just last Monday night, she read about this rage for old antiques, and how the fad had grown to such extent that folks were going almost mad. It gave her an idea and from out our old back shed, she's resurrected something that was once poor grandpa's bed. And now you wouldn't know it—all polished new and fine, ma says, "That 'ere Chi-Name! will do it every time." Never throw away a piece of old furniture unless it is actually broken and unable to stand alone. Its value depends upon its looks and Chi-Name! will take care of that. Sold by T. P. Grant's. 52

THE WAKING PROCESS.

Easy Scheme to End Your Sleep at Any Hour You Wish.

"We hear it frequently asserted that if persons will impress the thought firmly upon their minds and continue thinking about it until they have fallen asleep that they desire to awake at a certain hour in the morning they will do so without fail," said Dr. Joseph Boehm in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "But how many people have tried this method of inducing a prompt awakening at a given hour in the morning only to find their rest through out the night disturbed and uneasy."

"The brain will usually respond to the will and awaken one in the morning near the desired hour under any circumstances, but to prevent the unbroken, uneasy sleep the adoption of only a very simple device is necessary. The last thing before getting into bed take a watch or clock and turn the hands to the hour at which one wishes to rise and gaze at this just long enough to fix the hour firmly on the retentive memory. Then if no other absorbing thoughts intervene between that and the moment one is locked in slumber the night's rest will be easy and unbroken, and promptly at the hour in the morning, as a rule, one will find oneself released from sleep and wide awake. There is no need to repeat it over and over in the mind. All this makes the brain uneasy and results in the disturbed slumber. Simply look at the watch or clock, as I have indicated, and the influence of the mind over matter will be clearly demonstrated in the morning. Try it some night and observe how smoothly this physiological fact works."

Hanged For Violating Smoke Law.

Curious and little known facts about the house fires were mentioned by E. H. Blake, addressing the surveyors' institution on warming and ventilation. Fires were at one time a great luxury, he said, and even the right to use the fire had been bequeathed. Thus the will of one Richard Byrthett (1516) read:

"I will yt sayd Nell my wyfe shal have ye chamber she lyes in and lyberte at ye fyre in the house; all yese thyngs shal she have so long as she ys wido."

Coal, continued Mr. Blake, was first imported into London at the end of the thirteenth century, but the smoke produced by burning it in improperly constructed grates caused such a prejudice against it that in 1306 a law was passed making it a capital offense to burn coal in the city. The Tower records give details of a man's trial and execution for the offense.—London Graphic.

Fluding the Officers.

Here is an amusing description of one of Balzac's periods of impecuniosity. Mery, the poet, a great friend of Balzac, was an inveterate gambler and rarely left the card table before daybreak. His way lay past the Cafe de Paris, and for four consecutive mornings he had met Balzac strolling leisurely up and down dressed in a pantalon a peds (trousers not term nating below the ankle, but with feet in them like stockings) and frock coat with velvet facings. The second morning Mery felt surprised at the coincidence; the third he was puzzled; the fourth he could hold out no longer and asked Balzac the reason of these nocturnal perambulations roundabout the same spot.

Balzac put his hand in his pocket and produced an almanac showing that the sun did not rise before 3:50. "I am being tracked by the officers of the tribunal de commerce and obliged to hide myself during the day, but at this hour I am free and can take a walk, for as long as the sun is not up they cannot arrest me."

"Taking aside," said the nature student, "there is in New Zealand a cowboy spider. This creature throws a web like web like a lasso over its prey's head then adds more and more coils and when the prey is bound hand and foot devours it."

"There is a Borneo spider that in the spring days plays a hide. It is a curious thing for a lovesick spider to do before his girl, but this Borneo boy, by drawing his arm across his chest produces a sweet, clear note. Whenever he sees a good looking young lady spider he stops and gives her a tune, hoping to win her by music."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Miners' Freedom From Cancer.

"Miners never have cancer. In thirty-five years' practice in a mining town I haven't had a single cancerous patient."

"And to what, doctor, do you impute this immunity?"

"Miners are singularly cleanly. They bathe every day. They rarely smoke. They are a temperate and regular set. Above all—"

The physician smiled grimly.

"Miners," he said, "die young. Cancer is an old age disease. And there really is the reason of the miner's cancerous immunity."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Yarmouth's Narrow Street.

Kitty Witches row, Great Yarmouth, can justly claim to be the narrowest street in the world, the entrance at one end being only twenty-nine inches and at the other fifty-six inches. It gives some idea of the width when one mentions that neighbors can shake hands and put out each other's candles across the street! Why these rows have been so constructed has given rise to a good deal of discussion. Some writers give the reason that when there was a very high tide the water might flow through them; others, in the event of an invasion they would prove an excellent means of defense or that the ground plans of the rows were suggested by the fishermen's nets, which, spread on the dunes to dry, had a narrow pathway left between them, which represented the rows. Yarmouth has 145 rows, and their total length exceeds seven miles. Kitty Witches being the most interesting and the narrowest of all.

CHRISTIANS GIVEN

INITIAL DRUBBING BY PRESBYTERIANS

The Christians sustained their first defeat of the season last night when the First Presbyterians showed them how the game of baseball should be played by a final score of 12 to 1. The Christians hardly got a look-in while the Presbyterians were busy tallying. The Presbyterians started things moving right off the reel, and before the Christians could hardly collect themselves had battered one man out of the box, and given another an ill feeling for a total of 10 scores in three innings. Three of these were in the first, four in the second and three in the third. The Christians got their lone tally in the fifth inning, when Ed. Miller singled, and stole everything but home plate. Cratty coming to his relief with a timely single. The score:

FIVE GOOD GAMES

SCHEDULED NEXT

WEEK IN LEAGUE

Five interesting games are scheduled in the Charleroi Church league for next week as follows:

Monday—Baptists, vs Christians; Tuesday—Catholics vs. First Presbyterians; Wednesday—Catholics vs. Methodists; Thursday—Lutherans vs. Episcopalians; Friday—Methodists vs. Washington Presbyterians.

The schedule committee has announced that the postponed game between the two Presbyterian teams will be played off Wednesday evening June 15, while the twice delayed contest between the Episcopalians and Methodists will be played off June 22. These are the only postponed games now on the docket. Wednesday's battle between the Catholics and Methodists will prove especially well attended owing to the Epworth League convention and Catholics Total Abstinence Union convention here on that date.

"Yes, sir," said old man Braggard, "as soon as I see them birds I went into the house and took down the old blunderbuss and pegged at 'em, and, by gorry, I brought down thutty birds to one shot. 'Can ye beat that?'" "Ya-as," drawled Uncle Si Peavey. "You know Bill Wiggins' frog pond?" "Yes," said old man Braggard. "What of it?" "Want I went down there the other night after sundown to shoot a couple of bullfrogs with my old shotgun," said Uncle Si. "There was 5,000 of 'em settled on them there lily pads, and I just lifted that there gun to my shoulder and let her go."

"S'pose you did," said old man Braggard. "How does that affect my bird story?" "Beats it all holier," retorted Uncle Si. "The minute my gun went off them bull darned 5,000 bullfrogs croaked."—Harper's Weekly.

She Makes a Suggestion.

"How beautiful and clean the horizon looks," said Polly as on the second day out she came up on deck and threw herself down in the steamer chair beside me.
"Well it ought to be," said I, looking up from my book. "The captain has been sweeping it with his glass for the past six hours."
"That reminds me," said Polly, turning two very grave brown eyes upon me. "Did you remember to bring that vacuum cleaner along with you, as I suggested?"
"No," said I unwarily. "I remembered to forget it, however. What on earth does anybody want with a vacuum cleaner at sea?"
"It was only for you, dear," said Polly. "I thought you would like to have your brains massaged with it occasionally."—New York Times.

EPWORTH LEAGUE PREPARES FOR CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

Charleroi Chapter Makes Arrangements For Delegates

OPENING SESSION TUESDAY

President E. W. Jones Announces Program for Three Days' Meetings.

Arrangements are practically completed for the holding of the Epworth League convention of the Washington district at the Methodist Episcopal church here next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. District President E. W. Jones of Bridgeville has announced the program, which will include morning, afternoon and evening sessions on the three days.

There are a large number of delegates and members of the chapter have made lavish preparations for their entertainment. They will arrive Tuesday morning and register. The first real convention service will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. On the same afternoon the constitution will be adopted, and the business session held. A "Get Acquainted" social will terminate the Tuesday afternoon exercises.

President Jones will preside at the Tuesday evening session, and Rev. Alson M. Doak, the pastor of the Charleroi Methodist Episcopal church, will make the address of welcome to the delegates and the response will be by Rev. J. S. Allison. Mrs. Joseph Earl Appley will give an illustrated lecture, "A Demon in Disguise."

On Wednesday and Thursday features will be department conferences. There will be in charge of various officers of the league in the district. The Wednesday morning session will begin at 8:30 o'clock and those who will take part in the program are I. W. Goettman of Monaca, J. C. Mace, Wellsburg, W. Va., President Jones, Miss Gertrude L. Fowles, Miss Emma Cox of Monhall and Mrs. M. L. McCoy of Glenwillard. Committees will report and reports will be made for the year.

On Wednesday afternoon, Rev. B. L. Archer of West Homestead, Mr. Mace, President Jones, Miss Nangle of Washington; Miss Cox, Miss Ida Openshaw, and Miss L. T. Smith will occupy places on the program.

Wednesday evening C. E. Townner of Monongahela, second vice president will preside, and Rev. C. S. Buchanan, a Java missionary home on furlough, will give a lecture. The principal feature of the Thursday morning session will be a discussion of the social side of the Epworth League. Rev. G. Meade Daugherty of Dravosburg and Miss M. S. Boswell of Pittsburgh will have places on the program. The report of the nominating committee will be made on Thursday afternoon. Dr. Terbush will talk to the pastors and J. D. Keffer of Washington and Miss Evangeline Gist and Rev. O. Smith of Franklin will speak. J. C. Mace will preside at the evening session and the officers installed by Rev. Terbush who is the district superintendent. Rev. J. Clarke Mathewson of Bridgeville will speak on the topic, "Paul, or John Mark."

Etta Lumsden Will Entirely Recover

May be Crippled for Awhile but

Word received by the Charleroi relatives of Etta Lumsden, the daughter of George Lumsden at Los Angeles, is to the effect that Etta has been taken home from the Good Samaritan hospital, and that her mind will be all right. She will be crippled for a while, but it is expected that she will in time recover entirely. Etta was assaulted several weeks ago by a 17 year old boy, with an axe and she was almost fatally injured.

CHARLEROI MAN RANKS AS AUTHOR

Book Written by Rev. A. M.
Doak will be Published in September

TITLE, "HOW TO BE RICH"

"How to be Rich" is the title of a new book written by a Charleroi man to be published the first of September, by Jennings and Graham at Cincinnati. The book is the work of Rev. A. M. Doak, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and is of a semi religious character. Rev. Doak sent in his manuscript in January and only yesterday received word that it had been accepted.

In his work, Rev. Doak takes up the discussion of nature, books, companions and God, and the enriching effect which they may have upon a life.

Rev. Doak has been gathering material for his book for about 10 years, but wrote it last summer. Jennings and Graham were the first publishers to whom the work was sent. It is not the first writing this popular minister has done by any means, however, having been a contributor for years to church and other papers, principally among which have been the New York and Pittsburgh Christian Advocates. His book will be placed on sale just previous to the quarterly conference of the Methodist church.

QUIETNESS PREVAILS AT VARIOUS PRECINCTS

Expected that Heavy Vote will be Turned Out in Charleroi for the Republican Candidates.

The primary election opened quietly enough in the borough at 2 o'clock this afternoon. With the exception of the second precinct, where the polling place has been changed from 520 McKean avenue to 600 Fallowfield avenue, the voting places remain unchanged. When the polls opened a large number of voters were in waiting ready to cast their ballots. The indications are that a heavy vote will be polled in Charleroi, as the friends of Congressman J. K. Tener and the various Senatorial and Legislative candidates are making a lively hustle to get out the vote. The polls will be kept open until 8 o'clock, which will give the voters who work out of town an opportunity to cast their ballots after their return. At this writing there has been no challenging, and the indications are that the election will be conducted in a quiet manner.

MONESSEN LODGE OF ELKS ARE EXPECTING TO GO TOO

Everybody Invited to Take Trip to Cascade Park with Charleroi Lodge, Next Wednesday.

SPECIAL RATES MADE BY THE P. & L. E.

Although the date for the Elks picnic was announced but a few days ago, the advance sale of railroad tickets has surpassed the committee having arrangements in charge. Many Charleroi people are taking advantage of the low rates and any one caring to go with the Elks this year can secure their tickets from any of the following committee: E. I. Brown, T. H. Warrensford, S. K. Long, R. J. McKean, L. F. Baker, F. E. Adams, J. B. Tussing, Roland Hoops.

The Monessen Lodge of Elks and their friends have decided to go with Charleroi this year and will play a ball game with Charleroi Lodge, the prize being a silver loving cup. A program of sports will be arranged for the day, and the park manager has notified the local Elks that nothing will be left undone to give the Charleroi people a good time. The local lodge of Elks invite the people of Charleroi to join them for the day at Cascade Park, which is without doubt one of the most up-to-date parks in the state. The P. & L. E. has made special rates for the Elks, making the fare $1.00 for the round trip by special train that leaves Brownsville at 7:30. Those going from Charleroi will take the train at Monessen. Arrangements have been made with the railroad company to have a special leave Cascade Park at 7 o'clock which will bring the Charleroi people home shortly after dark. All who are thinking of going with the Elks should secure their tickets early, thus giving the committee ample time to secure enough coaches.

Demand Laws Be Enforced

Charleroi Ministers Draft Resolution Opposing Sunday Baseball

At a called meeting of the Charleroi Ministerial Association last night a resolution was drafted, which will be signed by all the ministers demanding the enforcement of the laws regarding Sunday baseball and athletic performances in this section. The meeting was attended by six of the ministers. The protest was made from the game which was played at Donora last Sunday between a Donora and Charleroi team. When the resolution is prepared it will be made public and sent to ministers and news papers in other sections.

ELKS WILL PAY FOR SILVER LOVING CUP

The Charleroi Elks will play the Monessen Elks a game of baseball at Cascade Park June 8 for a silver cup, the winner to keep cup until next year when it will be contested for again. All baseball players who wish to play will report to Harry Hormell. All arrangements have been made for the outing. Tickets can be procured from the committee.

Thought to Have Been Stolen

As Chief of Police Albright was passing the old building at the corner of Third street and McKean avenue last evening he noticed three boys hastily making their exit from the place. He started after them, and in their haste they dropped two boxes of cigaret packages. He picked them up, and took them to the police station. It is believed the cigaerets were stolen, and Chief Albright has them at the police station for the owner. He knows the boys and may take some action.

Will Teach the Blind to Read

Classes to be Started at St.
Mary's Church Next
Wednesday.

On Wednesday, June 8 at 11 o'clock Miss Quirk of the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh will endeavor to form a class in reading, and writing for the blind by the raised letter system. The classes will be in the Sunday School room of St. Mary's Episcopal church and the Braille and Moon systems will be taught. Instruction and books are free.

This noble work is being carried on under the patronage of the Confederation of Women's clubs of Pittsburgh. Mrs. L. W. Shoy was instrumental in having Miss Quirk come here and she will give further particulars. Any one with poor eyesight can also receive free instructions.

BISHOP WHITEHEAD WILL CONFIRM CLASS

The Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, bishop of the Pittsburgh Diocese of the Episcopal church, will arrive this evening to be a guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Daly at North Charleroi. Sunday morning he will confirm a class at St. Mary's Episcopal church, dedicate a memorial window, and bless the corner stone of the old St. Thomas' church, which members of St. Mary's church have received from the ruins.

Only Two Meet Death on Division Within Past Month

NEW ORDER IS EFFECTIVE

Acts as Preventive to Wanton
Destruction of Life
On Tracks.

Very noticeable has been the decrease in the number of persons injured and killed on the railroad since the inauguration of the new order restricting trespassing. The new order has been the source of much complaint on the part of citizens and considerable trouble on the part of the railroad officers, but it has been, as predicted by the State Railway Commission which is responsible for its enforcement, very effective.

Along the Monongahela division within the past month, the total number of killed and injured would not total more than four. This is in marked contrast with the large list of killed and injured of former months before the order went into effect. Then the average number of killed and injured would reach 20 or 30, and some months even go higher than that.

The usual fine given trespassers on the railroad for the first offense is $1.00 and costs. Some are inclined to resist arrest, but quickly realize the futility of such action. In this immediate vicinity there has not been, so far as is known, any person injured or killed on the tracks within the past several weeks. At Houston Run this week a woman was killed while trespassing on the tracks and recently a man was killed at Brownsville while trespassing.

SNUG SUM REALIZED WITH WHICH TO BUY CARPET FOR CHURCH

A snug sum was realized by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church last night for the purpose of purchasing a carpet for the Sunday School room, through a Dream Social. Frank Bly was the "dreamer." He portrayed the part of a man who was to be married the next day, and he had dreams of old sweethearts of his. When his bride-to-be, a character taken by Mrs. C. Fisher, appeared, and began to dream of her old sweethearts, he nearly had heart disease.

Following the social refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake.

Vote For Tener.

In casting their ballots today for Congressman John K. Tener to continue to represent them in Congress, the voters of Charleroi will make no mistake. Mr. Tener is in every way qualified for the duties of the office he has creditably filled for one term, and for which he is most admirably adapted by reason of his wide acquaintance and profound knowledge of the conditions which make the representative of this Congressional district a most important factor in National legislation on account of its connection with the great inland waterways project. This district is one of several that comprise the nucleus of the legislation that has a most important bearing on National prosperity, and it is important that a representative of force and ability be chosen to promote these interests. No one possesses these qualifications to a greater degree than Mr. Tener, and for this reason his return to Congress is a good business proposition. Whatever opposition there may be to Mr. Tener in the district it has no other basis than that he has been loyal in his Republicanism at Washington; that he supported the 'Roosevelt' policies as promulgated by President Taft; that he voted with the majority of his party for the legislation recommended by the Republican National platform. This opposition is based on a movement to disrupt the Republican party in the State. It is opposed to the administration of President Taft, and is not in sympathy with the administration of Governor Stuart.

All who are in favor of the progressive policies of the Republican party as advocated by Roosevelt and Taft, should cast their ballots for John K. Tener to again represent this district in Congress. He is worthy of this great trust and will continue to give a faithful account of the stewardship imposed upon him.

Civic Duty.

Every citizen imbued with a spark of civic pride should make it a point to turn out at the primary election this afternoon. The polls are open from 2 until 8 o'clock this evening and those who have not voted by the time this paper reaches them still have the opportunity to have a voice in the nomination of candidates for officials who will represent them in the National and State halls of legislation.

Civic indifference is the cause of all the political misrule in this country. "Let me control the nominations, and I don't care who the voters elect," is the expression said to have been made by the political boss of a city notorious for misgovernment and corruption. Under our present laws such control is not possible if the voters will only turn out. The stay-at-home voter is a poor sort of Christian, even if he is zealous in church attendance. By his civic indifference he is a party to crime, vice and corruption that could not exist if he did his duty as a voter to himself, his family and his fellow man.

Our New Station.

All things come to those who wait, and by waiting more or less patiently for some years Charleroi is to get a handsome new railroad station. The announcement is officially made that the appropriation for the construction has been granted by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and that it will be completed this season.

Those who advocated reprisals against the railroad company for its apparent neglect of Charleroi will now see the wisdom of being patient. Great bodies move slow, and the Pennsylvania Railroad company is a huge concern, when all its ramifications are taken into consideration. Each locality in need of improvements must take its turn in the order the management thinks it is entitled, and all receive ultimate consideration as fast as the business policy of the company warrants. This is one of the most conservative and solid financial corporations in the country, and what may appear unjust discrimination to one community is simply a matter of impartial business policy with the corporation.

A New Jersey woman thinks that all "old maids" should take out papers of citizenship. Probably wants to distinguish them from the unfortunate married part of the feminine population. Of course the "old maids" will register no objection.

RHEUMATIC TWINGES.

Before These Pains Get a Hold Take Precautions.

Rheumatism is now considered by many doctors to be a blood disease and should be treated by rigid dieting. Medicines, at least in the first stages, are less effective than curbing the appetite.

If one is of rheumatic tendency she should eat little or no red meat, cut out sugar, bread, sweets and acid fruits and should drink plenty of water.

This may seem like a severe treatment for a small complaint, at the first only twinges. Neglected, they mean untold suffering, often complete disablement.

It would be a good thing for those of us who are inclined to take rheumatic twinges lightly to recall the definition of the late Dr. Spurgeon, himself a great sufferer from rheumatism and gout, "If you put your hand into a vise and let a man press as hard as he can, that is rheumatism; if he can be got to press a little harder, it is gout."

Before that vise gets such a hold it cannot be loosened, take precautions. Dieting may not be pleasant, but it is pleasanter than being a rheumatic victim with only oneself to blame.

Sock and Buskin.

In the early ages theatrical performers disguised their faces with wine lees or a rude pigment. Aeschylus, the famous tragic poet, introduced masks, which were of various kinds, expressing every age, country, condition and complexion. All were constructed with the greatest nicety and precision. The dresses were also adapted to the characters assumed by the actors. What was known as the buskin was a hunting boot. Those worn by tragedians had soles three inches thick, composed of layers of cork, and were laced up in front as high as the calf. Sandals were also worn, and many of these had thick cork soles. The colors of the foot coverings were various, red being the favorite hue for warriors and purple for other characters. Slaves wore a low shoe bearing the name of sock, which was also the ordinary footwear of comedians. From this circumstance arose the well known phrase of "sock and buskin," so generally associated with the drama.

A London weekly offered 2 guineas for a definition of faith, hope and charity. The winner is as follows: Faith, blind trust in a first page; hope, what investors are fed upon; charity, what some of them are likely to be brought to.

That is certainly not bad, but this one is perhaps even better: Faith, the gift that saves mankind; hope, the gift that cheers mankind; charity, the gift that makes man kind.

The Old Back Shed.

It used to be a barn but we all call it "our old shed." 'Tis just a place we pile stuff, and its' often pa has said: "I'll have the second-hand man come some day and haul away all this old rubbish stored in here I must do that today." But pa he'd sure forget it—'fore he'd get out of sight, and ma says now she's glad he did, for just last Monday night, she read about this rage for old antiques, and how the fad had grown to such extent that folks were going almost mad. It gave her an idea and from out our old back shed, she's resurrected something that was once poor grandpa's bed. And now you wouldn't know it—all polished new and fine, ma says, "That 'ere Chi-Name! will do it every time." Never throw away a piece of old furniture unless it is actually broken and unable to stand alone. Its value depends upon its looks and Chi-Name! will take care of that. Sold by T. P. Grant's. 52

THE WAKING PROCESS.

Easy Scheme to End Your Sleep at Any Hour You Wish.

"We hear it frequently asserted that if persons will impress the thought firmly upon their minds and continue thinking about it until they have fallen asleep that they desire to awake at a certain hour in the morning they will do so without fail," said Dr. Joseph Bochin in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "But how many people have tried this method of insuring a prompt awakening at a given hour in the morning only to find their rest through out the night disturbed and uneasy."

"The brain will usually respond to the will and awaken one in the morning near the desired hour under any circumstances, but to prevent the unbroken, uneasy sleep the adoption of only a very simple device is necessary. The last thing before getting into bed take a watch or clock and turn the hands to the hour at which one wishes to rise and gaze at this just long enough to fix the hour firmly on the retentive memory. Then if no other absorbing thoughts intervene between that and the moment one is locked in slumber the night's rest will be easy and unbroken, and promptly at the hour in the morning, as a rule, one will find oneself released from sleep and wide awake. There is no need to repeat it over and over in the mind. At this makes the brain uneasy and results in the disturbed slumber. Simply look at the watch or clock, as I have indicated, and the influence of the mind over matter will be clearly demonstrated in the morning. Try it some night and observe how smoothly this physiological fact works."

Hanged For Violating Smoke Law.

Curious and little known facts about the house fire were mentioned by E. H. Blake, addressing the survivors' institution on warming and ventilation. Fires were at one time a great luxury, he said, and even the right to use the fire had been bequeathed. Thus the will of one Richard Byrchet (1516) read:

"I will it sayd Nell my wyfe shal have ye chamber she lyes in and lyberte at ye fyre in the house; all rethyns shal she have so long as she ys wido."

Coal, continued Mr. Blake, was first imported into London at the end of the thirteenth century, but the smoke produced by burning it in improperly constructed grates caused such a prejudice against it that in 1306 a law was passed making it a capital offense to burn coal in the city. The Tower records give details of a man's trial and execution for the offense.—London Graphic.

Fluding the Officers.

Here is an amusing description of one of Balzac's periods of impecuniosity. Mery, the poet, a great friend of Balzac, was an inveterate gambler and rarely left the card table before daybreak. His way lay past the Cafe de Paris, and for four consecutive mornings he had met Balzac strolling leisurely up and down dressed in a pantalon a plets (trousers not terminated below the ankle, but with feet in them like stockings) and frock coat with velvet facings. The second morning Mery felt surprised at the coincidence; the third he was puzzled; the fourth he could hold out no longer and asked Balzac the reason of these nocturnal perambulations roundabout the same spot.

Balzac put his hand in his pocket and produced an almanac showing that the sun did not rise before 3:50. "I am being tracked by the officers of the tribunal de commerce and obliged to hide myself during the day, but at this hour I am free and can take a walk, for as long as the sun is not up they cannot arrest me."

"Taking aside," said the nature student, "there is in New Zealand a cowboy spider. This creature throws a coil of web like a lasso over its prey's head then adds more and more coils and when the prey is bound hand and foot devours it."

"There is a Borneo spider that in the spring days plays a tiddle. It is a common thing for a lovesick spider to dance before his girl, but this Borneo boy, my drawing his arm across his tum produces a sweet, clear note. Whenever he sees a good looking young lady spider he stops and gives her a tune, hoping to win her by music."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Miners' Freedom From Cancer.

"Miners never have cancer. In thirty-three years' practice in a mining town I haven't had a single cancerous patient."

"And to what, doctor, do you impute this immunity?"

"Miners are singularly cleanly. They bathe every day. They rarely smoke. They are a temperate and regular set. Above all—"

The physician smiled grimly. "Miners," he said, "die young. Cancer is an old age disease. And there really is the reason of the miner's cancerous immunity."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Yarmouth's Narrow Street.

Kitty Witches row. Great Yarmouth, can justly claim to be the narrowest street in the world, the entrance at one end being only twenty-nine inches and at the other fifty-six inches. It gives some idea of the width when one mentions that neighbors can shake hands and put out each other's candles across the street! Why these rows have been so constructed has given rise to a good deal of discussion. Some writers give the reason that when there was a very high tide the water might flow through them; others, in the event of an invasion they would prove an excellent means of defense or that the ground plans of the rows were suggested by the fishermen's nets, which, spread on the dunes to dry, had a narrow pathway left between them, which represented the rows. Yarmouth has 145 rows, and their total length exceeds seven miles, Kitty Witches being the most interesting and the narrowest of all.

CHRISTIANS GIVEN

INITIAL DRUBBING BY PRESBYTERIANS

The Christians sustained their first defeat of the season last night when the First Presbyterians showed them how the game of baseball should be played by a final score of 12 to 1. The Christians hardly got a look-in while the Presbyterians were busy tallying. The Presbyterians started things moving right off the reel, and before the Christians could hardly collect themselves had battered one man out of the box, and given another an ill feeling for a total of 10 scores in three innings. Three of these were in the first, four in the second and three in the third. The Christians got their lone tally in the fifth inning, when Ed. Miller singled, and stole everything but home plate. Cratty coming to his relief with a timely single. The score:

FIVE GOOD GAMES

SCHEDULED NEXT WEEK IN LEAGUE

Five interesting games are scheduled in the Charleroi Church league for next week as follows:

Monday—Baptists, vs Christians; Tuesday—Catholics vs. First Presbyterians; Wednesday—Catholics vs. Methodists; Thursday—Lutherans vs. Episcopalists; Friday—Methodists vs. Washington Presbyterians.

The schedule committee has announced that the postponed game between the two Presbyterian teams will be played off Wednesday evening June 15, while the twice delayed contest between the Episcopalists and Methodists will be played off June 22. These are the only postponed games now on the docket. Wednesday's battle between the Catholics and Methodists will prove especially well attended owing to the Epworth League convention and Catholics Total Abstinence Union convention here on that date.

"Yes, sir," said old man Braggard, "as soon as I see them birds I went into the house and took down the old blunderbuss and pegged at 'em, and, by gorry, I brought down thutty birds to one shot. Can ye beat that?"

"Ya-as," drawled Uncle Si Peavey. "You know Bill Wiggins' frog pond?"

"Yes," said old man Braggard. "What of it?"

"Waal, I went down there the other night after sundown to shoot a couple of bullfrogs with my old shotgun," said Uncle Si. "There was 5,000 of 'em settled on them there lily pads, and I just lifted that there gun to my shoulder and let her go."

"Spose you did," said old man Braggard. "How does that affect my bird story?"

"Beats it all holler," retorted Uncle Si. "The minute my gun went off them hull durned 5,000 bullfrogs croaked."—Harper's Weekly.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reliable physicians. As the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them, Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is the only Catarrh Cure on the market. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

She Makes a Suggestion.

"How beautiful and clean the horizon looks," said Polly as on the second day out she came up on deck and threw herself down in the steamer chair beside me.

"Well it ought to be," said I, looking up from my book. "The captain has been sweeping it with his glass for the past six hours."

"That reminds me," said Polly, turning two very grave brown eyes upon me. "Did you remember to bring that vacuum cleaner along with you, as I suggested?"

"No," said I unwarily. "I remembered to forget it, however. What on earth does anybody want with a vacuum cleaner at sea?"

"It was only for you, dear," said Polly. "I thought you would like to have your brains massaged with it occasionally."—New York Times.
